DETAILS OF CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS The volunteering work you are applying for means that, under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (1974), you must declare all convictions whether unspent or not. A conviction does not necessarily mean that you cannot volunteer for us, but we do need to know.

Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence?

Yes/No

Have you ever received a formal police caution?

Yes/No

Are there any matters pending which may result in a criminal conviction?

Yes/No

If you have answered 'yes' to any of the above questions, please give details in the space below:

I agree that any offer of volunteering with Penhaligon's Friends is subject to satisfactory references.

In accordance with the 1998 Data Protection Act, I agree that Penhaligon's Friends may hold and use personal information about me. This information, including that contained on this form, can be stored on both manual and computer files. It will be held securely and only used by authorised personnel.

I confirm that the information I have given is accurate.
